News

The Base Price on the First Day of Trading Will Be Determined Based on the Issuance Price- TASE determines the base price as the issuance price starting June 13, 2021. This move is intended to enable investors to start following the value of the security and assess the performance of the share in real time. The change allows the calculation of yield from the first day of trading and will serve as an important tool for researchers and investors seeking to calculate the yield of the share based on its value For additional information

Membership

TASE members including 11 Israeli banks, 6 brokerage firms, 3 foreign banks and 3 remote members and they are comprised by the Bank of Israel (Israel's central bank). The TASE supervises its members by virtue of the Securities Law. The TASE permits international banks and investment houses that have no permanent representation in Israel to become 'remote members'.
