

THE FIFTH PART OF THE RULES

THE PUBLICATION OF INFORMATION BY THE STOCK EXCHANGE

This is not an official translation and has no binding force.

Whilst reasonable care and skill have been exercised in the preparation hereof, no translation can ever perfectly reflect the original. In the event of any discrepancy between the original Hebrew and this translation, the Hebrew alone will prevail. The reader is therefore warned to take proper professional advice before acting further hereto, as neither The Tel-Aviv Stock Exchange Ltd. nor the translators assume any liability for accuracy hereof.

The Fifth Part of the Rules

1. In addition to any other arrangement in accordance with the Rules on the publication of information, the Stock Exchange is entitled to publish information, whether it has been processed and whether it has not been processed, including information that relates to trading, to members of the Stock Exchange and to listed companies as detailed below:
 - a. Trading details.
 - b. Securities indices, tradable indices, foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates.
 - c. Details relating to companies listed on the Stock Exchange and to the holdings of interested parties in companies listed on the Stock Exchange.
 - d. Notices and reports that are presented by members of the Stock Exchange, listed companies, Bank of Israel and mutual funds.
 - e. Various Stock Exchange notifications.
 - f. Economic data and news items, in so far as they may have an impact on the trading or on members of the Stock Exchange or on the listed companies.
2. The publication of information, as in section 1 above, can be done directly by the Stock Exchange, including the Stock Exchange Library, or by other distributors or by any other party, in writing, by electronic communications or by any other means.
3. The Stock Exchange is entitled to charge commission and handling fees for information services, as detailed in the Regulations.
4. The Stock Exchange will publish a notice to its members of any changes in the commission and handling fees.
